

Announcing Our Next
Chairman's Circle of Excellence
Award Recipient for NAA 2019
Al Silva

It is my pleasure to announce our next Chairman's Circle of Excellence award recipient for the 2019 National Achievement Awards: Al Silva, Senior Managing Director Investments of the Fort Worth office. This is his second consecutive achievement in this category.

Al specializes in multifamily property investments and serves as a Senior Director of the National Multi Housing Group. He has ranked among the Top 30 multifamily agents companywide three times and has been the top agent of the Fort Worth office for five out of the last seven years. In 2017, Al was the firm's No. 12 agent and the No. 7 multifamily agent. He has earned two consecutive Chairman's Club awards, seven consecutive National Achievement Awards and nine Sales Recognition Awards. Al joined Marcus & Millichap through the Sales Intern Program in 2004 and became an agent in the Dallas office later that year. He transferred to the Fort Worth office when it opened in 2007.

Al graduated from Texas A&M University with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in finance. He and his wife, Erin, have three children: Stella, 8, Adam, 6 and Samuel, 3. In his free time, Al enjoys traveling, cooking, reading and spending time with his family.

Please join the Senior Management Team in congratulating Al on his latest accomplishment and wishing him continued success.
