

Announcing Our Next
Chairman's Circle of Excellence
Award Recipient for NAA 2018
Al Silva

It is my pleasure to announce our next Chairman's Circle of Excellence award recipient for the 2018 National Achievement Awards: Al Silva, Senior Managing Director of the Fort Worth office. This is his first achievement in this category.

Al specializes in multifamily property investments and serves as a Senior Director of the National Multi Housing Group. He has ranked among the Top 30 multifamily agents companywide twice and has been the top agent of the Fort Worth office for five out of the 10 years that the office has been open. Al has earned one Chairman's Club award, six consecutive National Achievement Awards and eight Sales Recognition Awards. He joined Marcus & Millichap through the Sales Intern Program in March 2004 and became an agent in the Dallas office in October 2004. He transferred to the Fort Worth office when it opened in 2007.

Al graduated from Texas A&M University with a B.B.A. in finance. He and his wife, Erin, have three children: Stella, 6, Adam, 5 and Samuel, 2. In his free time, Al enjoys traveling, cooking, reading and spending time with his family.

Please join the Senior Management Team in congratulating Al on his latest accomplishment, and wishing him continued success.
